MILLARD PUBLIC SCHOOLS
SCHOOL DISTRICT NO 17

A meeting was held of the Board of Education of the School District No. 17, in the County of Douglas in the State of Nebraska. This meeting was convened in open and public session at 7:00 p.m., Monday, July 9, 2007, at the Don Stroh Administration Center, 5606 South 147th Street.

PRESENT: Brad Burwell, Jean Stothert, Linda Poole, Dave Anderson, Mike Pate, and Mike Kennedy

Notice of this meeting was given in advance thereof by publication in the Daily Record on, July 6, 2007; a copy of the publication is being attached to these minutes. Notice of this meeting was given to all members of the Board of Education and a copy of their Acknowledgment of Receipt of Notice and the agenda are attached to these minutes. Availability of the agenda was communicated in advance notice and in the notice of the Board of Education of this meeting. All proceedings hereafter shown were taken while the convened meeting was open to the attendance of the public.

At 7:00 p.m. Brad Burwell called the meeting to order and announced that the public meeting act is posted on the wall and available for public inspection. Mr. Burwell asked everyone to say the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll call was taken and all members were present.

Motion by Dave Anderson, seconded by Jean Stothert, to approve the Board of Education Minutes from June 18, 2007, to approve bills, and to receive the treasurer's report and place on file. Upon roll call vote, all members voted aye. Motion carried.

Superintendent's Report:

1. Still working on a date for dedication for Reagan Elementary. Traditionally, dedications have been held on Sundays, but Michael Reagan is not available on Sundays or the October dates that were given to him. Additional dates in September were given to Mr. Reagan, but have not heard back from him at this time. What are the board's priorities as to keeping it on Sunday, or sometime during the week? Saturdays would probably not be a good day.
2. Discussion continues in regards to the inter-local agreement for 4-8th grade leadership program between Omaha Public Schools and Westside Community Schools. Millard is still at the table for those discussions, but have not committed to this proposal, but would like to remain at the table for the planning process. This project would be shared costs that would be outside of the spending lid. The decision for the board is if they want to be in the inter-local agreement. Nancy Johnston is attending at meeting with this group on Tuesday. There is apprehension on this proposal, because of not knowing what the learning community super board would approve. The board was asked if they felt the Superintendent was being too cautious in this matter.
3. In the World Herald article on Sunday they stated nothing new. This was what was said all along, that low valuation school districts with lots of kids would fair out better than those small school districts that have high valuation. There is still a push for a study by the Governor or the education committee by the two county groups during the next legislative session.
4. If any board members are interested in attending the National Federation of Urban Suburban School District conference being held in Charleston, West Virginia, they should notify the Superintendent. The board may want to consider by this fall whether this is an organization that they want to continue membership or not.
5. One issue under consideration at this time is about transportation at Reagan Elementary. The surrounding area around Reagan is not exploding so there are very few sidewalks. There are sidewalks at the elementary building. Transportation will be provided for the Whitehawk subdivision for one year. Another issue is transfers. Because of some reassignment of subdivisions a couple of years ago there are some transfer requests to go into closed buildings. However, with additions added there may be a short-term recommendation to grandfather families that are already in one of those locations to remain there.

6. At this time we are working to schedule a presenter for the curriculum audit either on August 13 or September 24. Which ever date is not used for the audit will be used for a meeting on the code of conduct, drugs and alcohol committee work, which was a goal from last year.

Board Comments:

Mike Pate said he preferred August 13 for the curriculum audit presentation.

Mr. Pate favors having the Reagan dedication on a Sunday as in the past. It is his belief that this ceremony is more of a community event, than a Reagan family event. He indicated that if the family can attend it would be great.

Mr. Pate reported that he has heard from community members about LB 641, and that no one seems to like it. There are so many unknowns, and no one wants to embrace the legislation even if Senator Raikes says there is time to make adjustments.

Linda Poole preferred September 24th for the curriculum audit, because she had Open House on August 13th.

In regards to the dedication, Mrs. Poole also preferred that it remain on Sunday. She indicated that either day in October is fine with her schedule. She said she agreed with Mr. Pate that the dedication is a Millard community event.

Mrs. Poole will be going to Kearney at the end of July for the NASB legislation meeting.

Mrs. Poole announced that the NASB Area Membership meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 10, 2007 at Quarry Oaks. Mrs. Poole reported that Governor Heineman will be the speaker at this event, and she is hoping for a good turnout for this meeting.

Mrs. Poole and four other school board members from across the state have been asked to meet with the Governor to talk about property taxes on July 24, 2007. She will report back to the board after this meeting.

Jean Stothert reported that either day would work for her for the curriculum audit.

Mrs. Stothert agreed with the other board members that the dedication should be scheduled for the convenience of the community, and either of the October dates would be fine with her calendar.

Mrs. Stothert said she has heard the same comments as Mr. Pate in regards to the new education law that was passed. She reported that she has been at several events where members of the legislature also attended and they are confused and don't understand the law either. Mrs. Stothert commented that she can see why other people are skeptical about this law.

Dave Anderson reported that he will be attending the NASB legislation meeting in Kearney on July 21st.

Mr. Anderson said that either October date would be fine with his schedule for the Reagan dedication. It would be nice if a member of the Reagan family could attend.

Either date for the curriculum audit would be fine with Mr. Anderson's calendar.

Mr. Anderson said in regards to the National Federation of Urban Suburban School Districts conference that he would be able to attend if the district feels this is something that would be important to attend.

Mike Kennedy said he too is in agreement with Mr. Pate as to what the community is saying about the new law. He attended a luncheon today where Senator Pahls was the speaker. He thanked Senator Pahls for his representation for Millard and being only two senators who voted against some of the provision of the law.

Mr. Kennedy thanked the Superintendent and the staff for briefing the board members on the financial impact this law would have on the school district. There were districts that caved in and gave up, who are now threatening law suits. The problem, Mr. Kennedy stated, was the legislation that was passed last year, which wasn't good enough. This year there was a proposal brought forward, but another legislative solution was brought forward this year at the end of the session, which will not solve the problems, and the finances will not be the only issue. After talking to several other groups, and the Sarpy County Attorney, they are interested in filing law suits about shared property tax, and a couple of other items.

Mr. Kennedy proposed asking State Senators to ask for an opinion from the attorney general about the constitutionality of the property tax and representation. A formal request should be made to the Governor asking about a panel to study the finances.

In regards to the Reagan dedication Mr. Kennedy did have a concern. He stated that the son was willing to come, and if he can not be there for the dedication maybe the district should invite him to attend the school when his schedule would allow him to do that. Mr. Kennedy named several people that have expressed interest in attending the dedication.

Brad Burwell said he was available on either date stated for the curriculum audit.

Mr. Burwell said he will be attending the NASB Area Membership meeting. It will be good for all board members to attend the meeting. The board has been honored by this organization several times.

In regards to the National Federation of Urban Suburban School Districts it has been difficult for one of the board members to get to this meeting. He said maybe the board should really look at what this organization brings to them, and consider whether they want to continue the membership.

Mr. Burwell stated that he would like to be included in the inter-local being discussed, but there is so much uncertainty in the law. He thought Millard should stand on the sidelines and not push any harder on this inter-local agreement.

Mr. Burwell said he agreed with the majority of the other members that the dedication for Reagan Elementary is for the students and community most importantly. If Michael Reagan can come at another time that will be great.

Mr. Burwell commented on the World Herald article on LB 641 because everyone seemed flabbergasted by what happened in the law. These questions were being asked all along, and he commended the administration for keeping the board informed as to how this bill would impact the district. The board knew exactly what was happening financially. It was not a surprise to any members of the board. Ken Fossen shared the numbers with the board several times. He thought the article showed a little ignorance, because of confusion on how the law would affect the various school districts financially.

MEMORANDUM

To: K. Lutz
Re: Special Projects Policy/Rule
From: K. Fossen
Date: 6-19-07

In the past, the District has had some well-meaning individuals (i.e., both employees and volunteers) conducting “unapproved” projects in school buildings and on school grounds. In many cases, the District has been unaware of the projects until well after their completion dates.

Many of these un-approved projects have created problems (and expenses) for the District. For example:

- We have had unapproved planting projects that obstructed the weep holes on the exterior of brick walls on buildings. Obstructions of this nature cause moisture to be trapped within the walls leading to mold formation and the accelerated deterioration of the walls. The District has incurred costs correcting these issues.
- We have had unapproved landscaping projects that blocked the water drainage from sidewalks. This blockage led to ice covered walks during certain times of the year as well as an acceleration of the deterioration of the sidewalk. The District incurred the cost of correcting these issues.
- We have had unapproved “designer recommended” paints in the buildings. When (soon thereafter) touch-up paint was required by maintenance, the District did not have matching paints to do the touch-up and found its painters spending an inordinate amount of time trying to secure matching paints. While the painters were at the paint stores trying to match the designer paint colors, other building painting projects were delayed.
- We have had the installation of unapproved playground equipment that did not meet building and/or safety codes. The District subsequently incurred the cost of replacing, reinstalling, or removing the non-compliant equipment. In one case, a student was injured (broken arm) on non-compliant equipment.
- We have had unapproved out-buildings constructed with substandard (i.e., residential) materials. These lighter-weight materials were damaged within a very short period of time and the District incurred the cost of repairing the facility and bringing it to a higher durability standard.
- We have had unapproved fences installed. In one case, we had an inadequately designed fence (around a baseball field) destroyed by wind. We had similar wind damage related to an improperly constructed baseball dugout. The District, of course, incurred the expense associated with the remediation of the damage on these projects. [Note: The District has a $50,000 insurance deductible for wind damage.]
- We have had volunteers install unapproved walkways which were later determined to violate ADA standards. In one instance, the District’s liability insurance carrier directed that the walkway be block off until it could be removed and replace. This was done at District expense.

- We had a “home-made” ceiling suspension devise installed by a teacher in his classroom. Upon inquiry, it was discovered that the teacher had, at times, had students suspended from this devise. As far as we know, the devise never failed. As a precaution (and upon “request” from the District’s liability insurance carrier), the District incurred the expense of removing the devise and having a structural engineer design (and a licensed contractor install) a replacement devise. [Note: Other science teachers in the building requested similar devises in their rooms. Since the devises were used frequently for instructional purposes, the District installed new (structurally sound) devises in similar classrooms.]
- We have had “unknown volunteers” construct various types of storage devises. In one case, an overhead storage area was constructed replete with wooden access stairs. Since the installation did not come close to meeting safety codes or building codes, the District incurred the cost of its removal. [Note: No one (not even the building principal) was aware that this construction had taken place. It was apparently constructed over a weekend.]
- We have had numerous trees planted without approval. Frequently, these trees block the grounds crews from using their larger mowers (or hampering access by snow removal equipment). Under such circumstances, the District must incur the cost of “custom mowing” the area or incur the expense of moving or removing the trees. Additionally, there is the added cost of upkeep (pruning, mulching, watering etc.) associated with the trees.

Unfortunately, the list of issues created by well-meaning volunteers and employees is almost limitless. The discovery of “unapproved projects” is a regular topic at my Friday morning meetings with maintenance, operations, and project managers.

In order to mitigate the issues created by unapproved special projects, I’m proposing Policy 3614 and Rule 3614.1 for consideration. If everyone in the District were to follow the requirements of the proposed Policy and Rule, I believe we would save both time and money by addressing issues in a proactive manner during the planning stages rather than incurring the costs associated with remedying the issues after the fact.

If you have any questions, give me a call.

OPTIONS AND ALTERNATIVES CONSIDERED: Leave rules unchanged and continue to report K-2 student academic progress as indicated in Rule 6330.2.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Approve the changes as recommended to Rule 6330.1 and 6330.2

Middle school made gains on four of six, while staying the same on one portion (language) and decreasing on one (science). High school made gains on five of six portions of the test and stayed the same on one (language).

Options/Alternatives Considered: none

Recommendations: Use immediately to determine academic progress of the district.

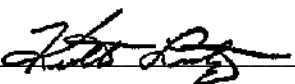

Strategic Plan Reference: To meet the mission of the district.

TerraNova Results, 2006-07

Elementary: Fall, 2006

Secondary: Spring, 2007

Background

The version of the TerraNova that Millard Public Schools is using is called the “multiple assessments” form because it is made up of both open-ended (constructed response) items and multiple choice items. We are also using the science and social studies subtests of the TerraNova and a related aptitude test, the Test of Cognitive Skills, Second Edition (TCS/2).

Elementary schools test in the fall, so the 3rd and 4th grade data are from the September/October, 2006 testing. The middle schools and high schools are continuing with spring testing, so those data are based on March, 2007 testing. Appropriate norms (fall for elementary and spring for secondary) are accessed for normative data reports.

Reading/Language Arts

The Reading/Language Arts portion of the TerraNova measures reading comprehension, language expression, vocabulary, and reference skills. These are integrated together, around “themes” that provide context and link together the different items.

Mathematics

The math subtest uses realistic topics to keep students engaged with the assessment content. Graphics are used extensively, as are procedures such as estimation, computation, and reasoning skills.

Science

The science assessment is linked to the national science standards in life sciences, physical sciences, Earth and space sciences, and inquiry. Items also assess relationships such as science-and-society and the history and nature of science.

Social Studies

The social studies test emphasizes the relationships of history, geography, government and economics. Context is provided by a variety of materials such as maps, political cartoons, photographs and authentic quotations.

Test of Cognitive Skills, Second Edition

The TCS/2 is a group-administered aptitude test designed to be predictive of school success. It includes measures of understanding of verbal and non-verbal concepts, memory, and the comprehending of relationships between ideas.

Results

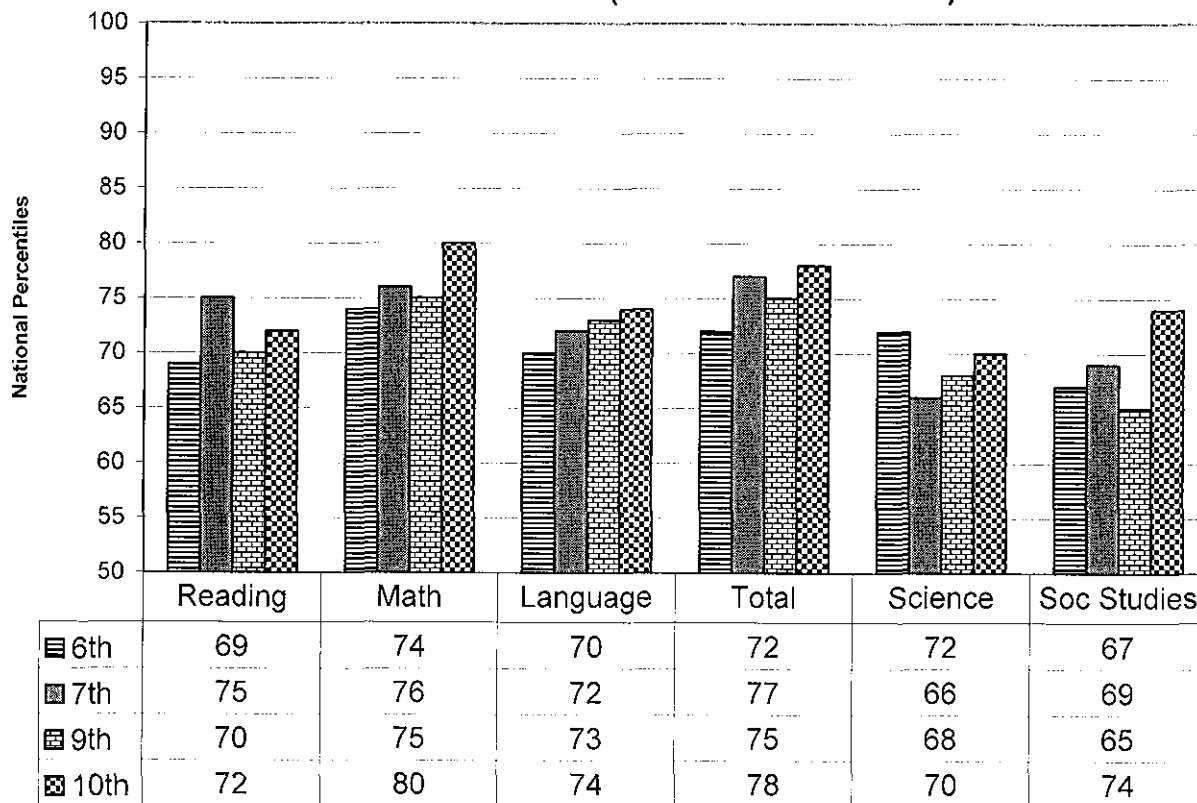

The results are presented both at the district level and at the building level. The first analysis shows the overall districtwide performance for 3rd, 4th, 6th, 7th, 9th and 10th grades using national percentiles, for the subtests and for the total score. The total score is based on reading, language, and math (i.e., science and social studies are not represented in the total score).

Elementary TerraNova Results, 2006-07 National Percentiles (Based on Mean NCEs)

Elementary results varied from the 68th percentile (4th grade, science subtest) to the 79th percentile (3rd grade, math subtest).

Secondary TerraNova Results, 2006-07
National Percentiles (Based on Mean NCEs)

Middle and high school results varied from the 65th percentile in 9th grade social studies to the 80th percentile for 10th grade math.

The next set of results shows the cohort comparison of the previous year's TerraNova scores with this year's results for 4th, 7th, and 10th graders (essentially the same group of students in 2005-06 and 2006-07).

In elementary schools, reading, language, total, and social studies all showed positive increases (from 3 to 6 points). Math declined by two points and science remained the same.

The TCS/2 aptitude score decreased by 1 point.

Comparison of Prior 3rd grade and Current 4th grade
National Percentiles Based on Mean NCEs

In middle-level grades, the cohort analysis demonstrated that all scores except for science remained the same or were higher: reading showed the most growth with a gain of +5 points, while math, total and social studies increased from 1 to 3 points. Language remained the same. The aptitude measure showed an increase of 8 points districtwide. Science scores declined by 6 points.

Comparison of Prior 6th grade and Current 7th grade National Percentiles Based on Mean NCEs

In the high school grades, all achievement subtests showed improvement except for the language subtest which remained the same. The gains ranged from 1 point (on the reading subscore) to 9 points improvement (in social studies). The aptitude test (TCS2) remained the same.

Comparison of Prior 9th Grade and Current 10th Grade National Percentiles Based on Mean NCEs

The chart on the following page shows the comparison of the median national percentile on the TerraNova achievement test (total score – made up of Reading, Math, and Language) with the corresponding percentile from the TCS/2 aptitude test, for all tested grades. In the elementary grades, the achievement score is 5 to 7 points higher than the aptitude test score. In the middle grades, achievement is 1 point higher than TCS/2 in 6th grade, but is 1 point lower than TCS/2 in the 7th grade. In the high school grades, the achievement score is 4 to 8 points higher than the TCS/2.

Comparison of TerraNova and TCS/2 Aptitude Scores
National Percentiles Based on Mean NCEs

The following graphs compare the total battery scores for all grades tested, for the seven years that we have been using the TerraNova. These results show comparisons of different groups of students each year (non-cohort data).

Because this is non-cohort data, these data reflect more on the curriculum and instruction program growth over time, rather than student growth.

The elementary data demonstrates growth following a drop off in 2004-05 and 2005-06, bringing the results back to the level of two or three years ago.

Sixth grade results are inconsistent, moving between the 74th and the 70th percentile over the past 6 years. This year 6th grade scores decreased after three years of increasing. Seventh grade showed no improvement for the last 2 years, but then decreased from the 78th to the 77th in 2006-07.

Ninth and tenth grades have been essentially flat, with ninth varying from 75 to 77 and tenth grade at 78 to 79.

Comparisons Across Years (Non-Cohort Data)

Grade 3 Total Battery

Grade 4 Total Battery

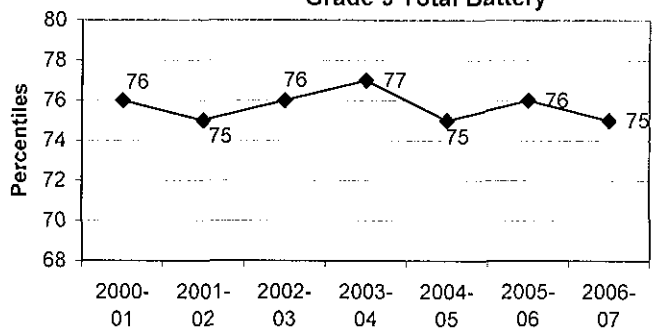

Grade 6 Total Battery

Grade 7 Total Battery

Grade 9 Total Battery

Grade 10 Total Battery

This graph shows the districtwide SPED vs. non-SPED disaggregation on the total battery score. The median SPED score in the district ranged from the 32nd percentile (9th grade) to the 53rd percentile (4th grade). These scores are comparable to last year's results, when the SPED population scores ranged from the 30th to the 49th percentiles.

Comparison of Special Education and Non-SPED Populations

The following chart shows the variation in percent of the population qualifying as Special Education by grade level (districtwide). Third through fifth grades identify the highest proportions of students.

Summary

The analysis of cohort groups (last year's third vs. this year's fourth grade, etc.) showed that elementary students demonstrated growth in reading (6 percentile points), in Language (4 percentile points), in total score (3 percentile points), and in social studies (3 percentile points). Math and science showed a decline. At the middle level, all content strands showed increases except for language, which remained the same and science which showed a decrease. Growth from 9th to 10th was positive for all areas except for reading. The effect of SPED on building scores is quite variable, ranging from a negligible impact in some schools to a 40 to 50 point difference (between SPED and non-SPED scores) in other buildings.

School-Level Results

The appendix of this document presents school-level results in two ways: (1) building total percentiles, by subtest by grade (this year's vs. last year's TerraNova) and (2) building disaggregations of total scores, for SPED and non-SPED groups.

AGENDA SUMMARY SHEET

AGENDA ITEM: Staff Development Report

MEETING DATE: 6 August 2007

DEPARTMENT: Educational Services

TITLE AND BRIEF DESCRIPTION: Professional growth opportunities in the Fall 2007 Workshop Booklet.

ACTION DESIRED: APPROVAL DISCUSSION INFORMATION ONLY

BACKGROUND: Fall Workshop Booklet: This comprehensive booklet contains staff development and training that has been planned by a variety of district departments since January, 2007. Certified and classified staff receive this booklet in the annual July mailing to notify them of their specific training. The majority of new staff were offered an additional three days of training prior to the date that veteran staff return on August 7. Special education new staff were offered four additional training days. New staff were paid at their per diem rate to participate in new staff orientation (August 1st – 6th). Topics for the new staff days included but were not limited to: technology training, 6 Traits Writing/Language Arts training, MEP curriculum information, special education procedures and time to work with their mentors/buddies.

OPTIONS AND ALTERNATIVES CONSIDERED: Fall Workshop Booklet: After the 2006 Fall Workshop, several feedback and review meetings were held with the MEP facilitators, Educational Services directors, technology trainers and HR representatives to revise and refine the activities for the 2007 new teacher orientation and 2007 Fall Workshop for all staff. The format of the book continues to be updated every year to be more user friendly for all.

We also surveyed new 2006 staff following the August 2006 new staff orientation and again during second semester to receive feedback on whether the new staff orientation had appropriately prepared them for teaching in MPS. In addition to the electronic Zoomerang surveys, MEP Facilitator, Dawn Marten, also conducted three small group feedback sessions with new staff randomly selected from Reeder Elementary, Kiewit Middle School and South High School. We were pleased with the feedback we received from new staff on both surveys and in the small group feedback sessions. It was apparent that our new staff who had taught in other districts prior to coming to MPS recognized and appreciated the high quality of support that Millard provides staff.

Based on the 2006 new staff feedback, we made changes for the 2007 new staff orientation. We centralized all of the new staff training to one building, Millard North High School. By centralizing our location, there was less travel time for new staff. We are also hoping this centralized location provided for a greater consistency of staff development offered in every session.

Two suggestions from 2006 new staff were that we try to differentiate the technology training and offer more work time in their classrooms. We were able to increase the time we differentiated technology training by offering tutorial sessions in the afternoon for any new staff who needed extra assistance. New staff could self-select whether they needed more assistance or not. If they chose not to attend the extra tutorial sessions, they reported back to their buildings to spend time in their classrooms (Attached to this report are schedules that new teachers received on August 3).

We also continued with the change we made in 2006 by offering two mandatory training sessions for certified staff (School House Bullying: Spotting the Signs & Sexual Harassment Awareness) during “after school” sessions throughout the year. This allowed new certified staff to spend more time in their rooms during fall workshop to prepare for the start of the school year. (Attached to this report is a flier that was shared with new staff on August 2.)

RECOMMENDATIONS: Continue to support District Staff Development.

STRATEGIC PLAN REFERENCE: Strategy (Implemented 1990) – We will develop and implement plans to ensure the highest quality of staff.

Millard Public Schools New Hires

All new certified hires need to register through Millard's on-line registration system, Better & Better, for one session of each of the following two required workshops.

1. School House Bullying: Spotting the Signs

In this short one-hour workshop, we will review the signs of bullying and discuss appropriate ways educators should intervene.

Offered: Tuesday, September 25 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B & C
 Tuesday, November 27 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B & C
 Thursday, March 20 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B & C

2. Sexual Harassment Awareness

Sexual harassment's power to wreck the lives and fortunes of you, your coworkers, and your organization makes it an ongoing cause of concern. This program helps you clearly define sexual harassment and provides you with clear examples of behaviors that have been deemed inappropriate by the courts, as well tested techniques for responding to and confronting harassers. The program also outlines the latest trends in sexual harassment law and tells where to turn for additional advice, support, and resources.

Offered: Tuesday, September 11 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B, & C
 Tuesday, November 6 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B, & C
 Tuesday, January 29 / 4:00-5:00PM at DSAC - Rooms A, B, & C
